

Dr. Parker Rugeley, Ed.D.

Clinical Supervisor/ Parent Trainer

Parker Rugeley's passion for education advocacy and support draws from his experience with underserved students. Dr. P works as a Clinical Supervisor/Parent Trainer for Mylestones Therapy. Dr. Parker believes that all people are inherently good and provides spaces for folks to assemble and have an open dialogue about issues they face in various environments.

In 2018, Parker graduated from California State University, East Bay with a B.A. in Political Science with an option in Pre-Law and a B.S. in Criminal Justice Administration with an option in Justice and Enforcement. In 2020, Parker graduated from his alma mater with a Master's in Public Administration with a concentration in Public Management and Policy Analysis. In December of 2023, Dr. Parker earned his professional doctorate at the University of the Pacific concentrating in Transformative Action in Education.

